

The Royal Festival Hall Auditorium

The Royal Festival Hall is at the heart of Southbank Centre. With fixed raked seating for up to 2500 delegates and variable staging options, it offers excellent sightlines and acoustics. The Hall hosts events from orchestral concerts to graduation ceremonies and AGMs. The surrounding terraces and foyers are light and airy providing superb locations for lunch or refreshments.

Seating

Fixed raked theatre seating for 2,500

Finishes

Wood panelled walls, with fabric seating

Access to Auditorium

Accessible by lift and stairs on all levels

Wheelchair access via Levels 4 and 5

Goods lift direct to stage area

Power

3 x 200 amps per phase

3 x 63 amps per phase

3 x 32 amps per phase

Lighting

The RFH has a standing lighting rig including both generic lanterns and moving heads. Please get in touch with your Southbank Centre contact for details and costs of lighting packages. Full lighting specifications and plans available upon request.

Standard lighting desk: GrandMa Full Size. Other control desks are available upon request if available. Please contact Production for further details.

Sound

A comprehensive range of PA systems are available. Details on request.

Projection

A range of front projection screens are available. Back projection may be possible depending on stage layout.

35mm film projection can be operated and film projection equipment can be hired.

Stage dimensions

Depth: 11.25m

Width point: 20.60m

Narrows down to: 17.50m back of stage

Included in venue hire fee

- Two technicians and a Production Manager to oversee the technical side of your event. NB two technicians may not be sufficient to cover all technical requirements.
- Duty Manager to oversee the front-of-house aspect of your event.
- Event Manager who will be your first point of contact throughout the organisation of your event and during the day of the event itself.
- Fully staffed cloakroom facility in the foyer.
- Full set of stewards and a senior steward to ensure guests are seated.
- An area for registration.
- Shared use of the Royal Festival Hall Foyer areas which are suitable for registration and refreshments, a buffet lunch and/or a small display area.
- Green Room and a number of additional dressing rooms for speakers and guests.

Please read 'Production health and safety code of practice.pdf' (available on-line) if you intend to hire the Royal Festival Hall auditorium.

Plans of the auditorium in both pdf and CAD format are available on-line.